POP/ROCK SOLO ARTIST
& ONE MAN BAND

BIO

With more than 100 original songs written and recorded, Maryland-based singer, songwriter, bassist, and musician Chris Tolentino brings decades of songwriting and live-performance experience to every stage.

His musical journey began in 1999 as the lead singer and bass player for alternative rock band SmudgeProof. Since then, his original music has reached audiences around the world, with songs featured on compilation CDs alongside artists including Iggy Pop, The Thrills, O.A.R., Al Green, and The Bloody Lovelies, as well as receiving airplay on internet radio stations across the globe. Today, Chris performs throughout the DMV and Mid-Atlantic region as a solo acoustic artist, and one-man band.

LIVE PERFORMANCE

Whether you're looking for the intimate sound of acoustic guitar and vocals or the energy of a full live band, Chris offers a versatile musical experience tailored to the venue and audience.

His repertoire spans Country, Pop, and Rock from the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s, and today, blending familiar favorites with original music. Equipped with professional sound equipment, he can provide everything from laid-back acoustic entertainment in an intimate setting to a high-energy performance designed to get a larger crowd moving.

Chris has performed at venues throughout the region, including Hard Rock Cafe Baltimore, Power Plant Live!, Frisco Tap House, Linganore Winery, Rockwell Brewery, Island Green, Liquidity Aleworks, Sonoma's, The Stables, Twain's Tavern, The Vine on Main, Union Jack's, and many more.
